ALEXANDRIANS SAFE. Mrs. E. T. Azema has received a letter from her son, Matthew, who, with his father, Mr. C. Azema, of Alexandria, were passengers on the steamer Finance which was sunk near Sandy Hook while on the way to Colon. The letter is dated November 27. Among other things the writer says: "You will see by this letter that we are safe and sound. We were transferred to the steamer Alliance after the collision by which the Finance was sunk, and passed the night on the first named boat. We are booked to leave tomorrow afternoon papa, as well as others on the Alliance, lost all their baggage. I behaved myself nicely when the ship was sinking. I was up on the mast with papa. We knew each other, supposing we were doomed to be drowned. We were the last except the captain, to leave the ship. Papa could not sleep last night by reason of the excitement through which he passed, he is almost a total wreck."

THE REVIVAL.

In spite of the threatening weather last night, a large audience greeted Evangelist Holcomb at the Washington Street Methodist Church. The preacher took for his subject, "Preparing the Way." The text was Luke, 3:4. He said: "A revival is a visit from God. Christians must prepare for this visit, before He will come. The mountains must be laid low. The mountain of pride is the most difficult to overcome. No matter how smart you are, there is some one that is smarter. No matter how rich you are, there is some one who is richer. No matter how beautiful you are, there is some one more beautiful. There is something in the lives of all of us that if we stop to think will take the starch out of us, something that will bring us down on a level with other folks. The crooked places must be made straight. God will not work through a crooked life. The valleys must be filled up, and the rough places made smooth. As long as you have malice or hatred in your heart, God cannot work through you and your work will fail."

At the close of the sermon the evangelist asked all who desired to consecrate their lives anew to the service of God to come forward and give him their hand. Most of the congregation responded.

The large chorus choir, under the leadership of Mr. Rountree, sang a number of songs before the service. This feature of the service is very attractive, the songs being new and spirited. Mr. Rountree sang as solo, "I Am Praying for You."

There will be no service tonight. Tomorrow will be a busy day. There will be preaching at 11 o'clock, 3:30 p. m., and at 7:30 at night. The afternoon service will be for men, and will be held in the Young People's Building, and the subject will be "What's Your Purpose?"

COLORED WAIFS. Early last night a diminutive colored boy, about five years old, of son Aaron Jackson, was found in the street scantily clothed and cold and wet from the rain which was falling at the time. He was taken to the station house and his parents notified, a ter which he was sent to his home. At an early hour this morning another of Jackson's sons, about eight years old, was found under the porch of the house at the northeast corner of Cameron and Fairfax streets. The child's clothing was insufficient for cold weather, and the garments he wore were torn. He had no underclothing, and his flesh was exposed. The boy was stiff with cold, and his condition seemed to be critical. He was taken to the station house and placed beside a stove and he later revived. This morning Jackson and his wife, Florence, were cited to appear before the Police Court to answer the charge of neglecting their children. The accused in their defense said the boys ran away from home, although they endeavored to keep them in the house. Justice Caton told the parents that should their little children be found in the streets in future, both father and mother would be sent to jail. Jackson has ten children living, and several are dead. His offspring have given the authorities trouble heretofore.

ALEXANDRIA AMUSEMENT COMPANY. Without doubt the talking pictures at this house are the finest specimen of entertainment yet seen in this city. One would presume that it would be impossible to witness a scene where the voice would come from canvas. But such is the case as all who see these pictures can testify. Last night the large crowd highly enjoyed the magnificent entertainment and tonight a special new set of pictures will be put on. If you miss this treat it will be your own fault.

FINED THREE DOLLARS. Mr. L. D. Lyles, Market Master, complained to the police department this morning of the procedure of a countryman, who, he alleged, had exposed apricot on his bench which he had purchased from another man. The accused was cited to appear before the Police Court and show cause why he should not be fined for conducting business without a license. Being unable to do so, he was made to pay $3. It has often been observed that much of the produce exhibited on the benches of some countrymen could not have been grown by them.

NEW CARS. Five new electric motors, designed for use on the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway, have been delivered at the yards in Rosslyn, Alexandria county. They are double-trailer cars of the semi-convertible type. The cars will be placed in service as soon as possible, electricians now being engaged in wiring them and preparing them for service.

FUNERALS. The funeral of the late Mr. John Cranford, who died near Lorton, Fairfax county, yesterday, took place from the residence, this afternoon.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Ellen Knight, wife of Mr. Julian D. Knight, will take place from St. Mary's Church at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

VIOLATING REVENUE LAWS. Deputy Marshal Joseph F. Glover yesterday arrested John Bailey, colored, of Alexandria county, on the charge of violating the internal revenue laws. The accused was taken before Commissioner J. W. Wernley, when he gave bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance before the United States Court.

VERY FRIENDLY. A very pretty entertainment was given at Christ Church Parish Hall, last evening, by the Girls' Friendly Society. The children who sang and recited were entirely trained by two members of the society who deserve all credit for the amount raised for the Sunday school.

DEAD BY HIS OWN HAND.

MR. JULIAN FOGG, A PROMINENT BLACKSMITH, SUICIDES.

Lying on the floor in the back part of Mr. J. Owen Lynch's grocery and liquor store, at the southeast corner of Henry and Duke streets, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon was the lifeless body of Mr. Julian Fogg, who at one time conducted one of the largest blacksmith establishments in this city. He had been drinking to excess and apparently Mr. Lynch, the proprietor, and asked for a glass of liquor, which Mr. Lynch refused him. Mr. Fogg, thinking that he would not be paid for the liquor, informed Mr. Lynch that he had money and wanted a drink. Mr. Lynch again refused him, telling Mr. Fogg that he already had enough and could get no liquor in his place. Mr. Lynch then started for the grocery portion of his store, but he had hardly turned his back when Mr. Fogg placed a 38-caliber pistol to his own head and brought it to a close all his earthly troubles.

The ball entered the brain from the right side of his head and caused instant death. Mr. Fogg's business had been declining for some time and it is possible that financial troubles caused the rash act. He was a married man and lived on King street, between Patrick and Henry. His wife was the widow of Capt. Miles, who was well known as a conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad some years ago. She had one daughter. Mr. Fogg conducted a blacksmith shop on Lee street, just north of King, at the time of his suicide.

There were two or three railroad men in the store when the act was committed but they were powerless to prevent it. It is said by friends of the unfortunate man that he had been contemplating this act for some time. After he fell to the floor Dr. M. D. Delaney was summoned, but could do nothing for him, as he was beyond hope. Dr. S. B. Moore, the coroner, was summoned, and pronounced an inquest unnecessary. The body of Mr. Fogg was later removed to his home on King street.

It will be remembered that a few months ago Mr. Fogg was bitten on the hand by a horse, for which he was treated at the Pasteur Institute, in Washington. This worried him considerably and combined, possibly, with the loss of a once lucrative business, no doubt caused him to take his life.

Mr. Fogg was a genial, whole souled citizen, and his death under the above circumstances is deplored.

Rev. G. I. Humphreys, pastor of the M. P. Church, has returned from Cecil county, Md., where he has been spending the week and will occupy the pulpit tomorrow.

The above church has organized a sextette choir, as follows: Mr. N. S. Greenaway, director, Mrs. H. B. Caton, Miss Bettie Key, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hays, Mr. S. H. DeVaughn and Mrs. Daniel Magee; Miss Mary Penn's Young Men's Bible Class will from a chorus choir, with Mr. Raymond Powell as organist. The Young Ladies' Mission Society Class, conducted by Mrs. H. B. Caton, will have its regular weekly meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Caton. The class will give a formal reception in Japanese fashion, in the near future.

Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mr. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

In addition to repeating the above several specialties, acts will be put on including Joseph Hanley the black-faced entertainer. Miss Alexander in straight songs. Frank Pasenie, in illustrated songs.
